BEGINNINGS

Happy New Year to Everyone! I hope that your Christmas was special and filled with the love of family and friends. I would like to take this opportunity to thank some very important members of our club. I would like to thank those who served on the Board of Governors. I have enjoyed working with each of you this past year. It has been a learning experience for me and each of you has taught me something. Also, thank you to the Fleet Captains for keeping us informed about the racing and cruising events during the year. Each of you has given your time and your expertise and we have all benefited from that. Also, I appreciate the work that the Program Chairmen, Rating Chairman and Legislative Affairs have accomplished this year. A special thanks to Hospitality and to those of you who supplied our meetings with goodies. To our wonderful webmaster; thank you for keeping our website updated and informative.

There are two people that I personally need to thank. The first is Joe Coleman. When Jim and I joined the club almost seven years ago, Joe was the Commodore. He and Karen were so kind to us and welcomed us into the club with open arms. Every year since then, Joe has either held a Board position or served as a Committee chairman. But this year, after serving our club for ten straight years, Joe has decided to take a break. Joe, thank you so much for your advice and your knowledge. Thank you so much for serving the club so well and giving a new meaning to the word camaraderie.

Brenda Merchberger has one of the hardest jobs in the club. First of all she is the newsletter editor and the membership chairman. It is a very time consuming job each month to prepare the newsletter layout, get it to the printer in a timely manner and then fold, staple label, and send them out to each member. There are over 200 boats in our membership. In addition, Brenda welcomes each new member by sending them a welcome package from the club. Plus, she has spent an entire year guiding me through my first year as commodore. Without Brenda's hard work, this club would not be as successful as it is. Thank you so much Brenda for all that you do to keep this club flourishing.

For the past year as your Vice Commodore, as well as in many previous years in various Board and support roles, I have had the pleasure of writing articles each month for the Foot, Tack and Clew. I have tried to inject some humor into most of the articles and I hope that it was received in the same vein that it was sent.

I have enjoyed serving on and with the Board because of the great people that I worked with and the people that we served. I wish the new Vice Commodore the same enjoyment and I will give her my full support. (However I look forward to sitting down on the main floor with all my friends and heckling Pam and the other Board members as much as Karen will allow!)

Donna Oyer has often said that this club is like a big family, and I have always agreed with that. Not only do we like to be out on the water and sail (or motor sail, - or just motor, Chip); we also really enjoy each other's company. It has never been so much about where we go, but who we travel with.

I would like to close by saying thank you to all those who have made this last year so enjoyable.

River Racing: Jim Yates – Racing is done for the year, however, it will start again Jan. 2nd.

New Business:

* Donna presented the nominating committee's recommended slate for 2007 Board of Governors. A motion was made, seconded, and carried to approve the slate as presented. The newly elected Board are: Commodore – Donna Oyer; Vice Commodore – Pam Vanderveer; Rear Commodore – Jim Yates; Secretary – Carol Whitley; Treasurer – Tom Schrader; and Elected Governor – Neil Hodgson.

The 2007 Fleet Captains will be: Cruising Director – Ken Windsor; River Racing – Jim Yates; Women's Racing – Rhonda Delmater. In addition, Joanne Theriault will take over Hospitality.

* We are looking for volunteers and/or suggestions for programs to be held after the meetings for 2007 – please see Pam Vanderveer for any recommendations.

* Norm LeMoine informed the members the cable show Lats & Atts is in its 4th or 5th season and if members want to see this show, members should call their local cable or dish company to request the Water Channel be available to them. His thought it doesn't take many calls for them to add this to their line-up but we need to make our voices heard.

Old Business:

Ship's Store: Embroidered items may be ordered through Brenda at Space Shirts at 321-453-7453. Items available for purchase at the monthly meetings include: siphons $8; jackets $20; license plates $5; burgees $20; ECSA patch $7.50.

With there being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Pam Vanderveer, Secretary

Last but not least, thank you to each one of you that have helped the club during the year, even in a small way.

We begin the New Year with new dreams, new expectations and new plans for the future. I look forward to working with the new Board of Governors this coming year. We will work together to ensure that the club remains a place where sailors can come, bring their families and share their passion with one another.

Happy New Year to each of you....

BAHAMAS CRUISING PLANS 2007

Are you interested in participating in a cruise to the Bahamas during May and/or June of this year????

If you are interested, please sign up on the sheet that will be available at the next meeting.

Of course planning a cruise to the Abacos will be one of the considerations. However, this year a cruise to the Exumas will also be included in the planning depending on the level of interest. In the past, most of the cruising has been to the Abacos and it might be worth considering a different adventure using our skills as sailors and navigators. There already has been interest indicated in this as an alternative.

In the meantime, you should arrange to obtain your U.S. Customs decal by email to this address: decals@dhs.gov or by going to the internet via www.cbp.gov. Contact by telephone is also possible 317-298-1245. The cost of the decal is $25.00.

CRUISE QUARTERS "PINEDAVILLE"

By Donna Oyer

I can't believe that another Pinedaville has come and gone. As usual, it was definitely a group effort. From cleaning up the beach area in October to building on Friday, the volunteers were many. On Sunday morning after breakfast it was ECSA members who helped break down Pinedaville and clean up the beach. Again, we would never be able to have such a successful Pinedaville without the help of so many of you.

The fun started Friday morning as we arrived on Believe at Scott's cove. Jim and I were the first ones to arrive by boat, but there were already ECSA members building the "bano" and preparing the beach. We unloaded both of the vans parked along the causeway. Then we began to build Pinedaville. By sundown the building was completed. With so many helping hands, the time flew by. By Friday evening there were 21 boats at anchor and many members joined us by car just for our pizza extravaganza. At 7:00 pm "A New York Pizza House" delivered 14 large pizzas with various toppings and the crowd immediately began consuming them. By 8:00 having eaten one piece of pizza too many, we decided to just relax by the fire and enjoy the company. By 10:00 most everyone had retired to their boats for a wonderful night's sleep under the stars. The temperatures were in the 40's, and the wind continued to blow throughout the night. The cold temperatures made it a very comfortable but chilly night at anchor.

On Saturday morning, all of the elves were up early and ready to get the party started. With the wind blowing much of the night, some of our building had been relocated. But with a few nails here and there and some additional stakes in the ground, Pinedaville was again standing tall and party ready. Kurt had arrived and with help from the crew, Kurt's equipment was set up and ready for a day of great entertainment and music.

At noon Jim and I arrived on the beach in costume. We were so surprised at the amount of participation in the costume contest and how great the costumes were. I think this was by far the best costume contest ever at a Pinedaville. The costumes were original, clever and just plain imaginative. Jim and I were relieved that we weren't the judges. That difficult decision was made by the reigning King and Queen, Phyllis and Gil Paradies and the preceding King and Queen, Wes and Sandy Whitley. After the "costume march" was completed, the judges had made their decisions. The best costume award was given to Joe Coleman and Brenda Merchberger. Then the King and Queen were crowned. The 2006 King and Queen of Pinedaville winners were Chip and Louise Worster with their little doggie, Tugger. Thank you to all of you who participated in the costume contest. It makes Pinedaville so much more fun when there are so many great costumes to pick from.

The first contest of the day was the Mullet Toss. It was obvious that there had been a lot of practicing going on. In the women's division the winner was Ronnie Birch. It remains a mystery who the kid's and men's winners were. If you were the winner, let me know and I will post your name in the February FT&C. As always, it is great fun watching everyone trying to miss the flying fish and their parts.

The dinghy races were next. Ron Vanderveer had placed the buoys in the river and everyone was ready for the races to begin. After many competitors and many laps around the buoys, the winners were Chris and John Cahall. Way to go guys!

The last competition before dinner was the conch blowing. It amazes me how anyone can make such a beautiful sound by blowing on a conch shell. Karen Coleman and Harvey Melfi won the adult division (2nd year in a row for each of them!). It was a close race though. In the kid's class, Noah Birch and Bailey McCarthy were the winners. Congrats to all.

During the day Kurt had everyone up in front of the stage doing the Electric Slide, the Chicken Dance and of course the famous conga line. The kids had their annual hoola-hoop competition. How do they hoola for so long?

Before dinner, Jim and I decided to get a boat count. It was impossible to get an accurate count from shore, so we decided to take the dinghy out and get a more accurate count from the river. NOT.... We counted numerous times and came up with this conclusion. There were less than 100 boats, but more than 1. Actually, we counted 54 boats; (approximately) It was definitely more boats than we had had in the past.

The dinner bell rang at 5:30 and the "Pinedavillers" were more than ready for some good grub. ECSA provided the meal prepared by Meemaws. It was an assortment of pork, turkey and roast beef. There was also an array of side dishes. It seemed as though there was every possible side dish imaginable. The food line was long, but there was plenty of food for everyone. After dinner we listened to the sounds of Kurt's great music choices. We also enjoyed the campfire while preparing for the night's festivities.

After dinner we had our annual Pinedaville Limbo contest. For the fourth year in a row, Ronnie Birch was the winner. We should rename the Limbo for Ronnie. It should be called the "Limber". Ronnie, what do you do to keep is such great shape? After the Limbo contest, we made two lines and "Passed the Fruit", down the line. It is hilarious to watch and even more fun if you are a participant. The rest of the night was spent listening to music, enjoying the three campfires that were built on the beach and eating s'mores that the kids had prepared. YUMMY!

Overall, the day was a filled with fun, laughter and celebrating with family and friends.

Breakfast on the beach Sunday morning was at 8:30 am, leaving a little time to sleep in. We had two pots of coffee ready by the time the cruisers made their way to the beach. The breakfast potluck was scrumptious. We ate breakfast and reminisced over the weekend's events and laughed all over again.

After breakfast was over it was crunch time. It was time to end another Pinedaville celebration. It was time to take Pinedaville down and put her away for another year. Again, we had so many helping hands. Thank you so much for all of your help.

Next year the Pinedaville theme is, "Cartoon Characters". That will be our fifth and final year of hosting for Jim and I. We have had so much fun hosting Pinedaville, but now it is time for someone else to plan a celebration at Scott's Cove. So, we will see you next year in your "Cartoon Character" costumes. We are looking forward to some really great costumes.

Flea Market
this Month!

Come one, come all, sell your junk, or buy some good 'ole boat stuff!

West Marine cancelled their fall flea market this year and folks at the Melbourne Yacht Club (MYC) figured that all their boating friends needed an outlet for their fleas. So MYC is holding a Marine Flea Market on Saturday, January 20th beginning at 8:00 am.

The spaces will be OUTSIDE. $10 for an 'on the trailer' parking spot for small boats for sale (used only, limited space available), $5 for a table, and $2 for a "space" (without a table). (All proceeds go to the Youth Sailing Fund at MYC.) There will be a 'rain date' if the weather's nasty on that date.

If you want to get on the list for a space, just drop an email to Sherry Beckett—itbecketts@aol.com.

ECSA Jackets have arrived!

For all of you who have been asking when we are getting more jackets in — they have arrived!

For only $20 each, stop by our Merchandise table at our February meeting to purchase your hooded cotton ECSA jacket.
